

2008-2009 Area 3 Verbal Report on Accomplishments

Boulder County

1. 8th Annual Beth Haines Award – Scholarship for female police officers to attend a national conference addressing domestic violence. This Award honors Beth Haines, a Boulder police officer killed while answering a DV call.
2. After a year of re-building, they're creating Literacy Backpacks for children kindergarten thru 1st grade with theme based backpacks for additional opportunities surrounding learning, such as bugs, dinosaurs, etc.

Denver

1. Staged a new Zonta Club of Denver Day of Film combining fund raising and advocacy.
2. Staging this weekend's D-12 Conference.

Denver II

1. Honored as the best non-profit
2. Project for Parent Pathways – the Baby Bucks Store $5k and service hours.

Douglas County

1. Supplied Victims Kits from 3-police depts. and received award from the Castle Rock Police Dept.
2. When given only 48-hours notice asking for 30-blankets for DV victims, the Club rallied and delivered on the request.

Foothills Boulder

1. Authors' Luncheon was so successful last year and that we were able to give out a combined total of $19,000 locally and ZI.
2. Also, Bev Sears won the Boulder Chamber Women Who Light Up the Community Lifetime Achievement Award and was honored at a luncheon on Sept. 18th.
3. Kay Meyer's article on CEDAW was published in the ICOSA magazine. Sorry I am giving you 3 and not 2.

Lakewood-Golden

1. Purchased and distributed 12,000 Krayons for Kids for the Health Department's Development Arts program w/ plans to expand to Jefferson County in the near future.
2. Very proud of their 2nd year w/ the same teacher for their Adpot-a-Teacher program.

TOOT YOUR OWN HORN!